ROCK CULTURE

DISENGAGED

ITALY ROCK

Creative direction was taken from the chaos of the streets of Napoli, to bring forth Disengaged. One rock, 12 faces and a textured body heighten the natural effect, resulting in an impeccable end product. The dark and unique rock pattern denotes the lavish landmarks of centuries old art and architecture.

CLOUD

ITALY ROCK

From the mouth of Mount Vesuvius, a piece of history from Pompeii is brought forth. 12 faces bring the rich dark grey and red tones to life. The natural rock formation of the crater is delicately imprinted onto the tile surface, preserving the features of this magnificent mountain that hold thousands of years of history. The name 'Cloud' is fitting for the Mt Vesuvius rock, as it once buried Pompeii under meters of a cloud of ash and pumice post eruption.

EARTH COLORS

ITALY ROCK

Transport the coastal rock faces of Livorno Italy to your space. 12 faces and an abundance of texture and pattern bring organic character to your environment. With a combination of lines and a mottled appearance in some areas, Earth is patterned enough to create interest, yet simple enough to not overwhelm. It's the perfect all rounder for flowing through every room in the home, to out in garden as well.

SANDY BEACH

ITALY ROCK

The 12 faces of Sandy Beach are inspired by the waves of the Syracuse sea kissing the shore, leaving light trails in its wake. The pattern is perfect for coastal and Hamptons style homes that want an alternative to timber floors and want to keep the room elegant and timeless. The continuous pattern allows for flow in open living areas, out to the alfresco and pool area - bringing the beach to your home, minus the mess of the sand.

PARTNER

ITALY ROCK

Natural stone texture from Sicily matched with the organic colours of cement, fuses together to create Partner. With 12 faces to highlight the cool and raw tones of stone, it is inspired by the Sicilian cooperative spirit.

The design is a random combination from Earth Colors, Flavor and Sandy Beach into a neutral colour that displays the beauty of the mashup, and can present well to any aesthetic.

FLAVOR

ITALY ROCK

Emerging from the ancient city of Matera, Flavors 12 faces mimic the stone found within the city’s deep caverns. The water stained limestone rock from the deep cave dwellings is what inspired the designers to create Flavor.

The thousands of years of rich history is bought into your home by the rock patterned surface.

EL CAP

AMERICA ROCK

Just as the name suggests, El Cap is inspired by the granite monolith in Yosemite national park. The delicate yet distinct lines reflect the ancient glacial action, which carved the face of this magnificent exposed piece of granite. As the tallest exposed vertical face of granite on earth, El Capitan is a natural wonder, who’s unique rock face can be transported straight to your doorstep.

TERRA

AMERICA ROCK

From the depths of the Yosemite canyon, its strong and winding veins contain the history of the formation of this glorious landmark. It is a privilege for us to witness the magnificent site of the canyon, and even more that we are now able to bring its mesmerizing beauty to our homes. Terra presents the contours left behind from ancient tectonic plate movement, which saw the ocean turn into a deep hidden canyon, and glaciers with floods making their mark on the rocky floor bed.

STELLA

TERAZZO ROCK

The 12 faces of Stella mimic classic terrazzo from the terraces of Venice, a preferred option where a delicate pattern is required. The texture of the original terrazzo pays tribute to simplicity and subtlety.

The exquisite gravel texture, is attractive as it is not too elaborate yet still provides enough detail in its composition. No matter where the living space, Stella presents a modern aesthetic.

CIVICO

TERAZZO ROCK

The design of terrazzo is inspired by the gravel flooring of ancient Greece. However, it has been used as a daily building decoration material in Italy throughout the years. Civico Terrazzo Rock inlays different gravel materials with a sense of natural design, forming irregular large granular stone patterns on the tile surface. A grey tone base and matte texture creates a natural and timeless atmosphere.

RAVELLO

The Ravello series is inspired by the natural stone of the Italian paradise towns on the Amalfi coast. The white linear markings and artistic charm, scatter across the multiple faces. Texture and colour are explored and combined perfectly, as colours in nature tend to change with time and environment.

During the day Ravello appears fresh and elegant, but at night, it exudes a warm and comfortable ambiance.

CALACATA

From Tuscany, Italy, where the regal marble of Michelangelo’s sculptures was sourced. Calacata’s 8 faces mimic strong opulent marble with a delicate underlying vein. The most renowned and well known of all marbles, Calacata is the only choice when wanting to bring class, elegance and a historical touch.

LUCCA

Lucca’s inspiration comes from the ancient city Lucca in central Italy. It is relatively subtler than Calacata and Massa.

The filament-like delicate texture reveals a sense of royalty over blandness.

The white and light grey filament lines stagger and overlap each other, bringing a unique beauty to the space.

The design was extracted the look like a combination of marble with travertine, where the tiles show structured lines and a stone-like look. The name Romani was given to this marvellous marble as the markings resemble those of traditional Ancient Roman marble slabs. The elegance and structure of the tile reflects its strong design while offering a timeless aesthetic for the architectural space.

VENETO

Veneto is inspired by the “City of Water”, Venice, with the islands that make the lagoon being lined by Gothic and Reinassance architecture.

The Veneto marble pays homage to the centuries old floating city and its aquatic foundations, by capturing the ammonite fossils upon the face of each tile. With 12 faces and a luxurious and unique pattern, Veneto brings a part of history directly to your space.

MARMO
GRANDE

OTSUNI

The ancient Italian city of Ostuni is known as the “city of white”, which the designers have used as their blueprint to create this magnificent piece.

The light grey strands flow and blend seamlessly into the white face, keep the simple monotone interpretation of the city elegant and gives a timeless aesthetic.

The light grey base forms a foundation for the interlaid white and darker grey “cracks” and “markings”.
The soft pattern is classic and with enough elements to keep it interesting, whilst still being simple enough to not overpower a room.

BARI

Bari was inspired by misty mornings entering the port from the Adriatic Sea. Its inky markings trace across the clean white face, implementing depth and a tone of elegance.

This simple marble look tile is perfect for those who wish to add glamour to a space, yet wish to still keep it minimal, soft and timeless

BAROLO

Barolo incorporates thin, jagged lines throughout its faces to add depth and character to its simple, neutral grey background.

The depth of the dark marble adds elements of both elegance and mystery, exuding luxury and a moody atmosphere.

It works wonderfully not only as a floor tile, but also a wall tile in space where you wish to create a more aphotic ambience.

PARMA

Imitating the riverbed from the small inner city of Parma, from where Parmesan cheese and Parma ham hail, this tile illustrates the exposed riverbed. Like any country, when the dry season hits, the riverbed becomes slowly exposed and reveals the deposition of sand and gravel left behind as the water journeys down its path.

The little island town is iconic for its limoncello and breathtaking rocky coves surrounded by a turquoise sea. Drawing inspiration from the rock faces off this little island, Capri exhibits the markings left over from the change in tides over centuries and the speckled grains of sand and stone which have embedded themselves over the years into the rock face.

MAINTENANCE

The maintenance of Mimic products depend, on the way that they are used. When used in raised floorings, avoid using water or excessive vapour and use damp and squeezed cloths to protect any systems under the flooring level. In case of facings on ventilated walls, avoid using water to damaging the insulation behind the tiles face that must be perfectly dry to function optimally.

The maintenance of materials laid with adhesive differs from cleaning when the laying is completed and extraordinary or routine interventions. For the former we recommend acid-based products, after having soaked the tiles to avoid damaging the joints with the acid solution. For the latter, we recommend normal neutral or basic degreasing detergents that can easily be found in commerce.
